

The Global Freedom Movement Code of Conduct

- *We leave every place cleaner than we found it
- *We do not resist arrest
- *We stand firm in our Natural Rights and shall not be moved
- *We hold ourselves and those around us accountable
- *We secure those we see around us violating our code
(If threats of violence, violence or criminal activity occur, document and inform police)
- *We do not make lewd or hateful statements or signage
- *We do not engage in vandalism, graffiti or property destruction
- *We do not recognize the perceived authority of tyrannical regimes
- *We condemn all calls for violence or the overthrow of legitimate government
- *We conduct ourselves within the bounds of the law
- *We exercise our right to protest regardless of government decree
- *We only engage in peaceful tactics as laid forth in our guidebook
- *We are unified under the banner of human rights and freedoms and nothing more, we will not abide those who seek to co-opt this unification with their divisive ideologies, political affiliations, religions or any other means by which one group would be made unwelcome to stand with the rest
- *We formally condemn and disavow all who make hateful, sexist or racist statements/signage, and declare by virtue of our code, that they are not part of this movement!
